REQUIREMENT 3 C: Explain to your counselor how you plan to use what you have learned to assist you when that time comes, and what action(s) you can take to serve as an upstander and help other people at all times .
A.
REQUIREMENT 4: Repeat the Scout Oath and Scout Law for your counselor. Choose two of the three following scenarios and discuss what you could do as a Scout to demonstrate leadership and your understanding of what it means to help others who may seem different from you:
Repeated the Scout Oath and Scout Law REQUIREMENT 4 A: Scenario 1: While at camp, a youth accidentally spills food on another camper. The camper who gets spilled on gets angry and says something that is offensive to people with disabilities; their friends laugh. What could/should you do?
REQUIREMENT 4 B: Scenario 2: Your friend confides in you that some students in school are making insulting comments about one of their identities, and that those same students created a fake social media account to impersonate your friend online and post messages. What could/should you do?

REQUIREMENT 4 C: Scenario 3: A new student in your class was born in another country (or has a parent who was born in another country). Your friends make rude comments to the student about their speech or clothes and tell the student to "go back home where you came from." What could/should you do?
REQUIREMENT 5: Document and discuss with your counselor:
REQUIREMENT 5 A: Ideas on what you personally can do to create a welcoming environment in your Scouting unit.
REQUIREMENT 5 B: An experience you had in which you went out of your way to include another Scout(s) and what you did to make them feel included and welcomed.
Α
REQUIREMENT 5 C: Things you can do to help ensure all Scouts in your unit are given an opportunity to be heard and included in decision-making and planning.

REQUIREMENT 6: With your parent's or guardian's approval, connect with another Scout or youth your own age who has an identity that's different from yours. (This means a trait, belief, or characteristic different from you.)
Connected with another Scout or youth
REQUIREMENT 6 A: Share with each other what makes the different aspect of your identity meaningful/special to you.

REQUIREMENT 6 B I: A time you felt excluded from a group.
What was the situation?
How did it make you feel?
What did you do?
What did you do:

Did anyone stand up for you?
What did you learn?
Would you do anything differently today?

REQUIREMENT 6 B II: This imaginary situation:
You're attending a new school and don't know anyone there yet. You notice they dress very differently than you do. At lunchtime, you decide you'll try to sit with a group to get to know other students. People at two tables tell you there is someone sitting at the currently empty seat at their table, so you end up eating by yourself.
How would that make you feel?
What could the students have done?
If that happened at your school, what would you do?
ii that happened at your school, what would you do:
REQUIREMENT 6 C: Discuss with your counselor what you learned from the discussion with the other Scout or youth.

REQUIREMENT 7: Identify and interview an individual in your community, school, and/or Scouting who	has had a significant positive impact in promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion. If you feel your community, sch	ool, or local
Scouting group does not have such an individual, then research a historical figure who meets these criteria	and discuss that person with your counselor. Name of interviewee
